BEST CONCESSIONS: The Allen Theatre and MJ's Coffeehouse, Annville. Though it is operated independently of the Allen, MJ's is impossible to ignore the second you step up to the ticket counter. The two businesses are connected by a neon lit archway and share a customer base. Movie-goers swing by MJ's before catching a movie just down the hall or stop by for a coffee after. With a selection of deli sandwiches, soups, salads, pastries, ice cream, coffees and teas, MJ's far surpasses the overpriced Junior Mints and stale popcorn of mere concession stands. The Allen is probably the only movie theater where you can enjoy a ham sandwich and "Hairspray" without having to smuggle the munchies in your purse. Info: www.allentheatre.com.
